PLATT

Foreword

Youth . . . classrooms and textbooks, football games and pep rallies, clubs and volunteer service, after-school jobs and summer work; all the spirit and hard labor that brings us to our goals.

Youth is a time of fun and frolic, but also a time of purpose and thought. The goal of today's youth is to bring tomorrow's world to greatness.

Dedication

The Sound of Music:

Oklahoma!, Christmas concerts, assemblies, spring festivals, Teahouse of the August Moon, a Christmas album, graduation, and many more . . . for these we, the class of 1965, sincerely dedicate our yearbook to Robert J. Cyr.

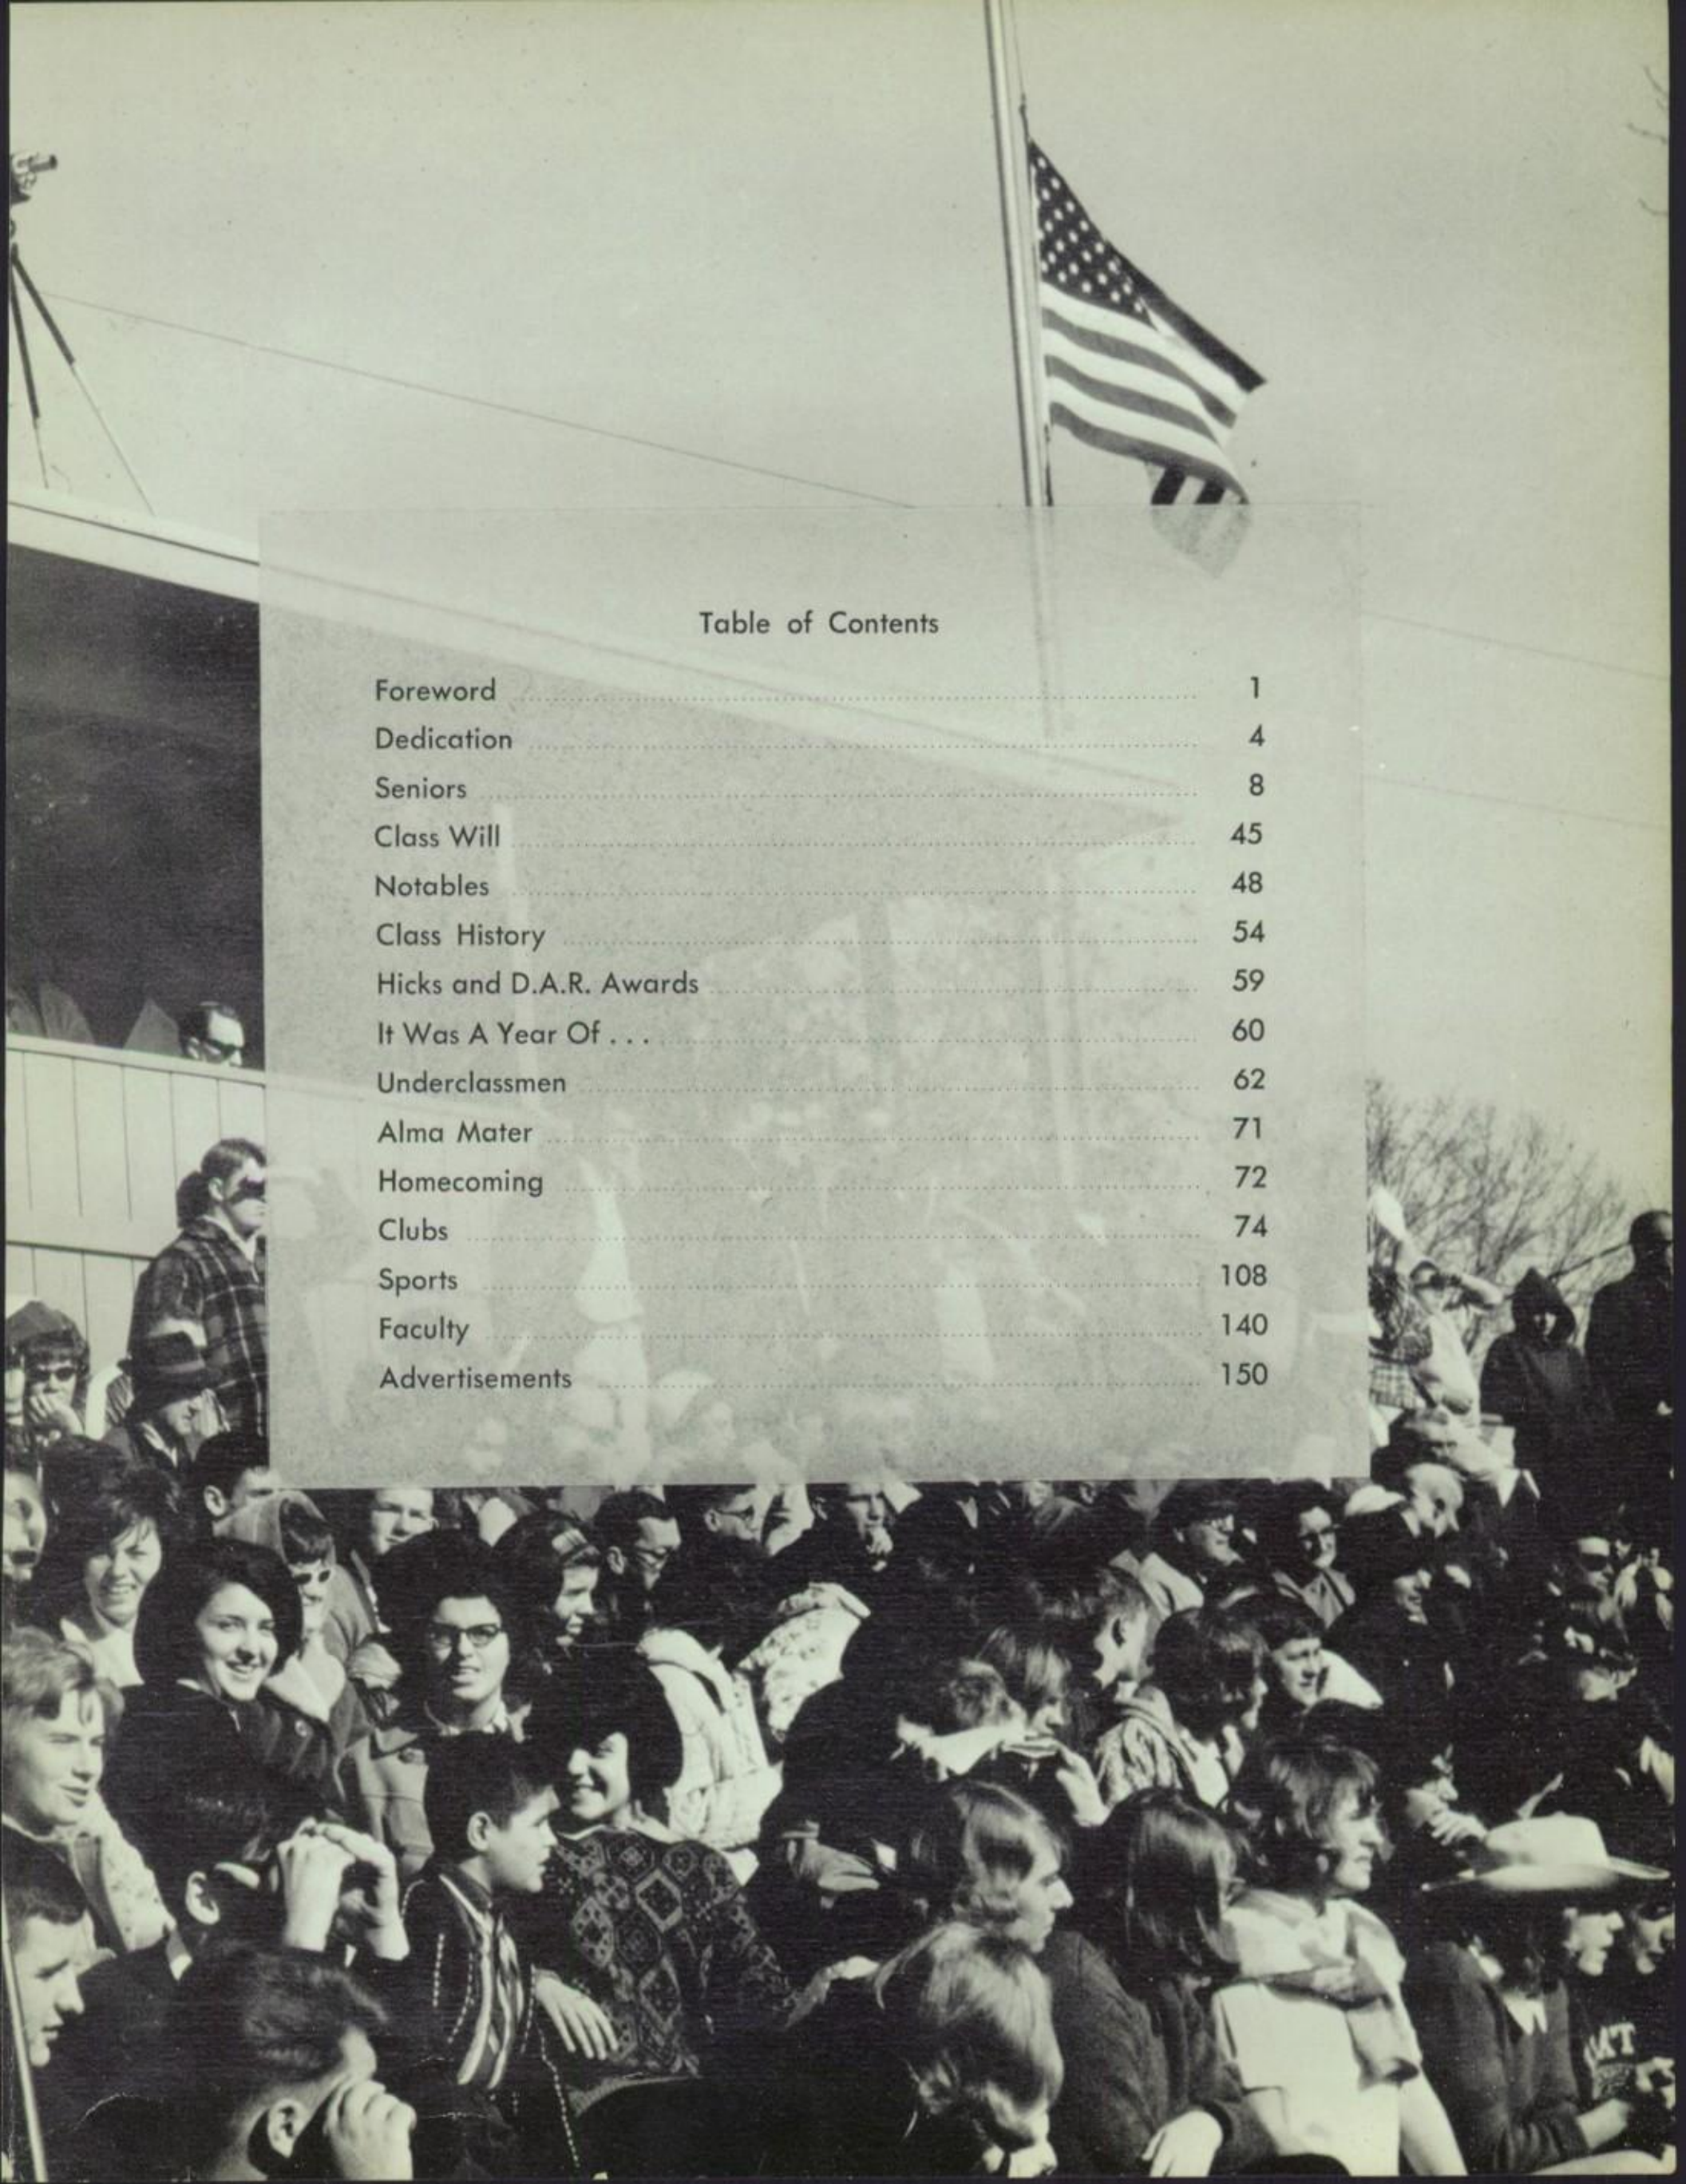

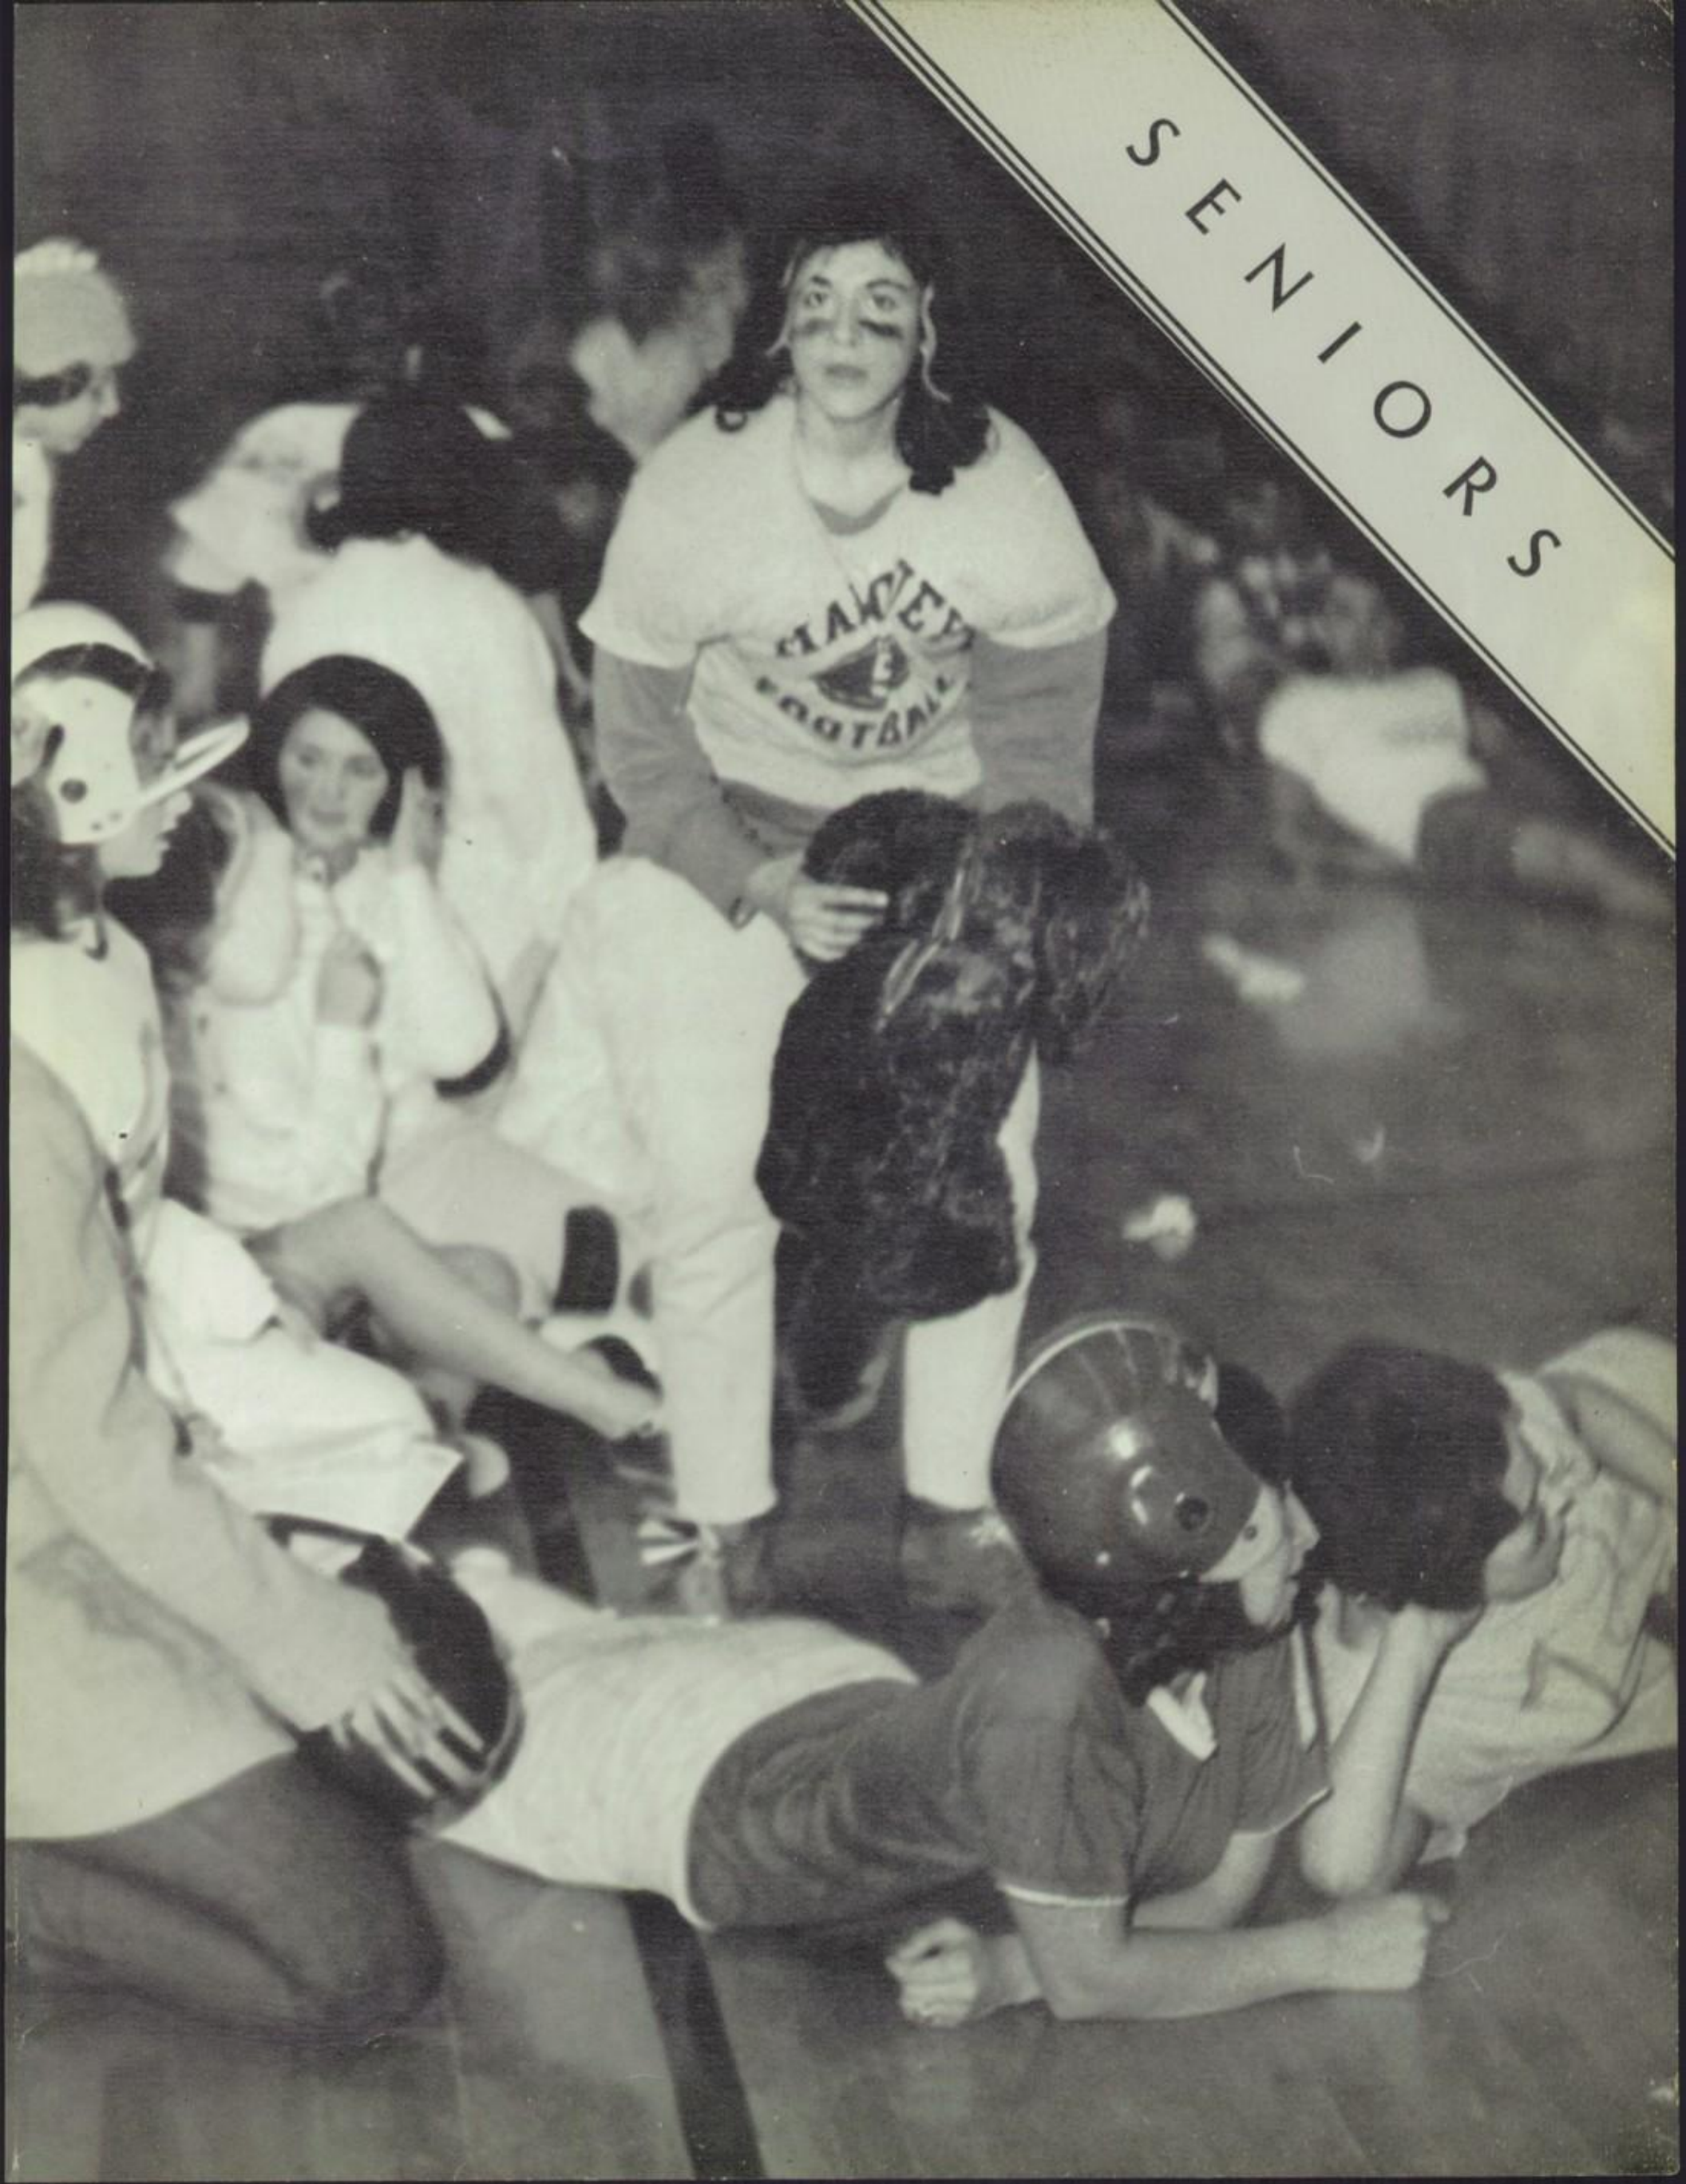

A black and white photograph of a large crowd of students and faculty gathered for a school event. In the upper right, an American flag flies on a tall pole. The crowd is dense, with many students looking towards the camera or slightly to the side. The scene is outdoors, likely on a school campus.

Class History 1961-1965

September 9, 1961, is a day that the class of sixty-five will never forget. On that day, as young, gullible freshmen, we started our high school careers. The seniors took great delight in telling us that the library was down by the cafeteria; and I wonder how much money they made selling us tickets to the first pep rally. After being enlightened by the more merciful upperclassmen, we were able to start our first year at Platt.

Our first project was the election of class officers. Bob Sokolowski was president, Pat Waldron was vice-president, Nancy Mazzarella was secretary, and our treasurer was Danny Roberts. The sponsors appointed to our class were Mr. Wodatch, Mr. Vecchiola, Miss Bernston, and Miss Sliva. These four teachers helped us become acquainted with high school life. They told us of the sports, clubs, and other extracurricular activities available to help us get more enjoyment out of our freshman year.

In September 1962, we again entered the hallowed halls of Platt High School, ready and waiting to do our part in confusing the new freshmen. We thought of an even better ruse than tickets to the pep rally. Our idea? A hidden elevator! The location of this secret device was behind the stairs across from Room 9.

Pat Waldron was elected to lead our class in its many endeavors. He had the able help of Joe Marinan as vice-president, Andi Arthur as secretary, and Maxine Gormley as treasurer. Our sponsors were Mrs. DePaolo, Miss Magnoli, Mr. Judd, Mr. Perkins, and Mr. Vecchiola.

In addition to conducting a very successful cake sale, we won a three-dollar prize for our dragon in our hall decorations for Thanksgiving. On May 25, the sophomore class held its dance, "Dandelion Jungle." The outcome wasn't much better than had been expected, in spite of the efforts of the dance chairmen.

In football this was a year to remember. Platt beat Maloney 34-0! The sophomore class was well represented by Paul Nakos, Wayne Wright, and Ron Seppa.

Our sophomore year was highlighted by the presentation of Oklahoma!, which brought fame to our own Maureen Mainville as Laurie. Many other sophomores were also in this production.

Another event concerning sophomore girls was the selection of new cheerleaders. Eight junior varsity and two varsity cheerleaders, all from the sophomore class, were among the rooters for the next year's games.

We began the second half of our high school years in September 1963. By this time we could take the excitement of the first few days in stride. We laughed at the mixed-up freshmen, remembering well our confusion and bewilderment when we were freshmen.

This year we had only two new officers: Joe Marinan as president and Larry Schwartz as vice-president. Our sponsors were the same as the previous year.

Under the direction of Ginny Ives and Mark Davis we began our biggest project—the Junior Prom. The theme "Heaven on Earth" was soon chosen and preparations began. April 6 was the big day. In a gym decorated with stars and angels, Joyce Zagorski was crowned queen, with Rae Muli and Cindy Soroka as attendants.

Finally we made it—our senior year! For many of us, September 1964 would be the last September we'd spend in Platt.

Our officers, who were elected in June 1964, were Paul Nakos, president; Larry Schwartz, vice-president; Nancy Mazzarella, secretary; and Maxine Gormley, treasurer. Our sponsors were Miss Magnoli, Miss Prassl, Mr. Perkins, Mr. Dressler, and Mr. Vecchiola.

Because this was our last year, it was our best year. Loaded down with homework, we studied diligently, at least until we were accepted by a college.

Everyone took part in extracurricular activities. The Yearbook was edited under the leadership of Sandy Turner and Janet Greenberg. Our football team, captained by Paul Nakos and Wayne Wright, was a credit to Platt, as usual. Maloney beat us 12-7, but that's on paper only. Ask any one of the boys who played or any of the people who watched the game, and the answer will be the same. "That victory belonged to Platt!"

With the same school spirit, the basketball team captained by Chris Siavrakas and Bill St. Onge, the baseball team captained by Donn Devito, and the soccer team captained by Roger Richard and Stan Kawecky fought for victories many times over. The wrestling team, swimming team, tennis team, cross-country and track teams all did their best to bring fame to their alma mater.

Everyone worked hard and played well during the senior year. All realized that this would be their last year of freedom. Next year there will be college for many and work or the armed services for many others.

The class outing at Ted Hilton's and the Senior Reception will be prominent among the many pleasant memories that we seniors will have of our years at Platt. As all of us look back on our last four years of varied experiences, learning, fun, and excitement, we will realize that they have formed the foundation for success and happiness in the future.

UNDERCLASSMEN

Juniors

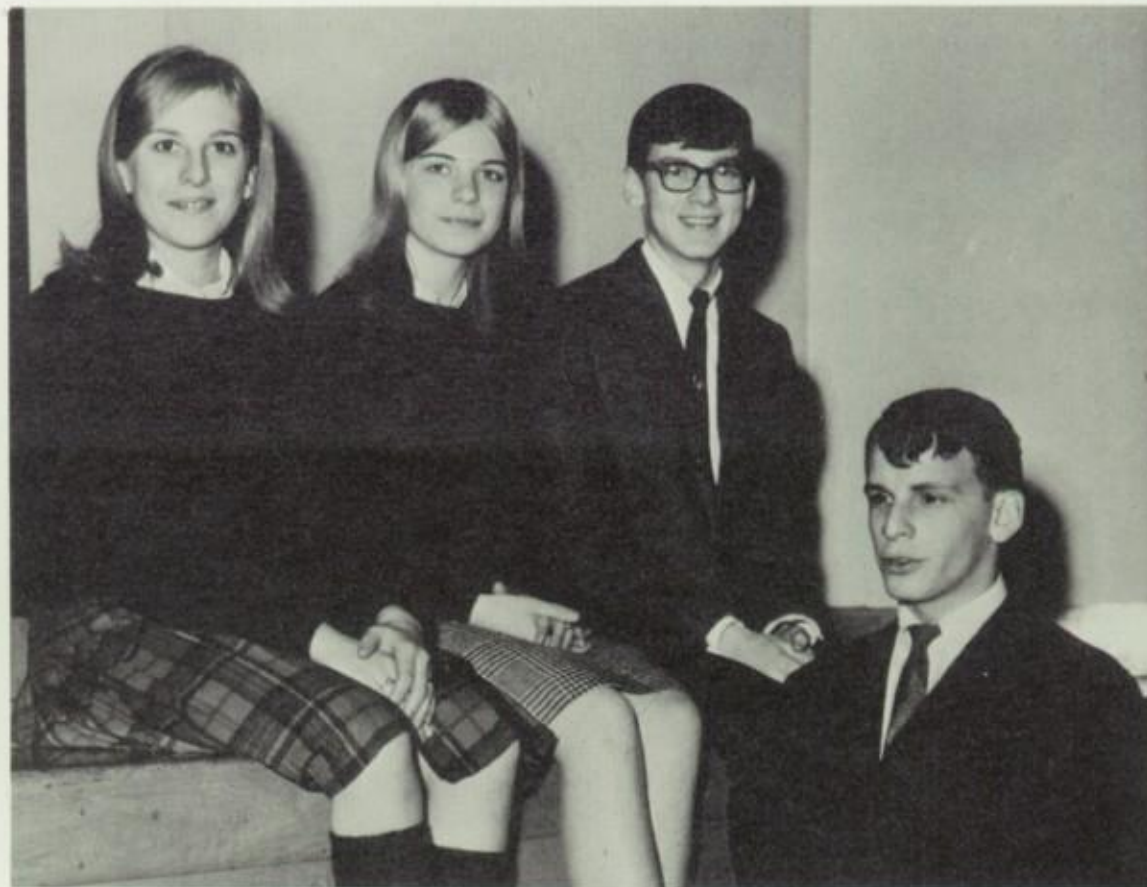

This year the Class of '66, under the responsible leadership of Fred Finkel, President, Kenneth Hardy, Vice-President, Donna Davidson, Secretary, and Andrea Falis, Treasurer, showed how, with determination and team work, many projects could be accomplished with profitable results. Examples of this can be found in the winning of the Originality Prize in the Thanksgiving Day decorations, in the cake sales, and in the well-organized planning of their Junior Prom, entitled "Suhani Shaam." Co-chairmen Stephen Gilmore and Lynn O'Brien did a fine job in supervising the activities of all the committees connected with the Junior Prom.

Special thanks should be given to the class sponsors, Miss Schmelzer, Miss Minkwitz, Mr. Dietter, Mr. Crone, and Mr. Maxted, for their assistance and guidance in all the activities of the class. Their help will long be remembered and appreciated.

Mr. Paul Crone, Mr. Theodore Dietter, Mr. Charles Maxted, Miss Dorothea Schmelzer, Miss Doris Minkwitz.

Junior Class Officers

President — Fred Finkel, Secretary — Donna Davidson,
Vice-President — Ken Hardy,
Treasurer — Andrea Falis.

Sophomores

Sophomores have always been called wise fools, but only the "wise" part of this designation applies to the Class of '67. This year the sophomores are a united, responsible class. A great example of their unity and responsibility is the winning of the prize offered for the best decorations for the Platt Maloney game.

The sophomores are loyal to Platt, too, for many participate in various sports and extra-curricular activities. They avidly support the athletic teams, and they are enthusiastic cheerers at pep rallies.

With these fine attributes, there is no doubt that the sophomores will continue to have great success in the years to come.

Mrs. Rosalie Otto.

Alma Mater

Hail, our Alma Mater! Now to thee we sing.
Lifting all our voices in praise and harmony.
Sons and daughters gather in salute to bring
Our eternal loyalty to thee,
Mighty! Strong in fame!
Glorious be thy name!

Proudly flies our banner, Valiant Blue and Gold.
May it wave there always and may its cause prevail!
May we through our own deeds, your ideals uphold!
Hail to thee, Our Alma Mater, Hail!

For the first time in the short history of Orville H. Platt High School, the Student Council gave special recognition to all Platt's alumni. The gala affair started with the choosing of the Homecoming Queen. After each class voted, a senior queen and two underclassmen attendants were chosen. On Wednesday of Thanksgiving week the Senior Class held its annual Platt-Maloney pep rally, at which a special section was blocked off and decorated for all visiting alumni. At this rally Paul Nakos, president of the Student Council, announced that the queen and her attendants were to be Maxine Gormley, senior; Cheryl Amann, junior; and Donna Torelli, sophomore. The queen would reign throughout the entire week and be crowned officially at the Homecoming Dance on Saturday.

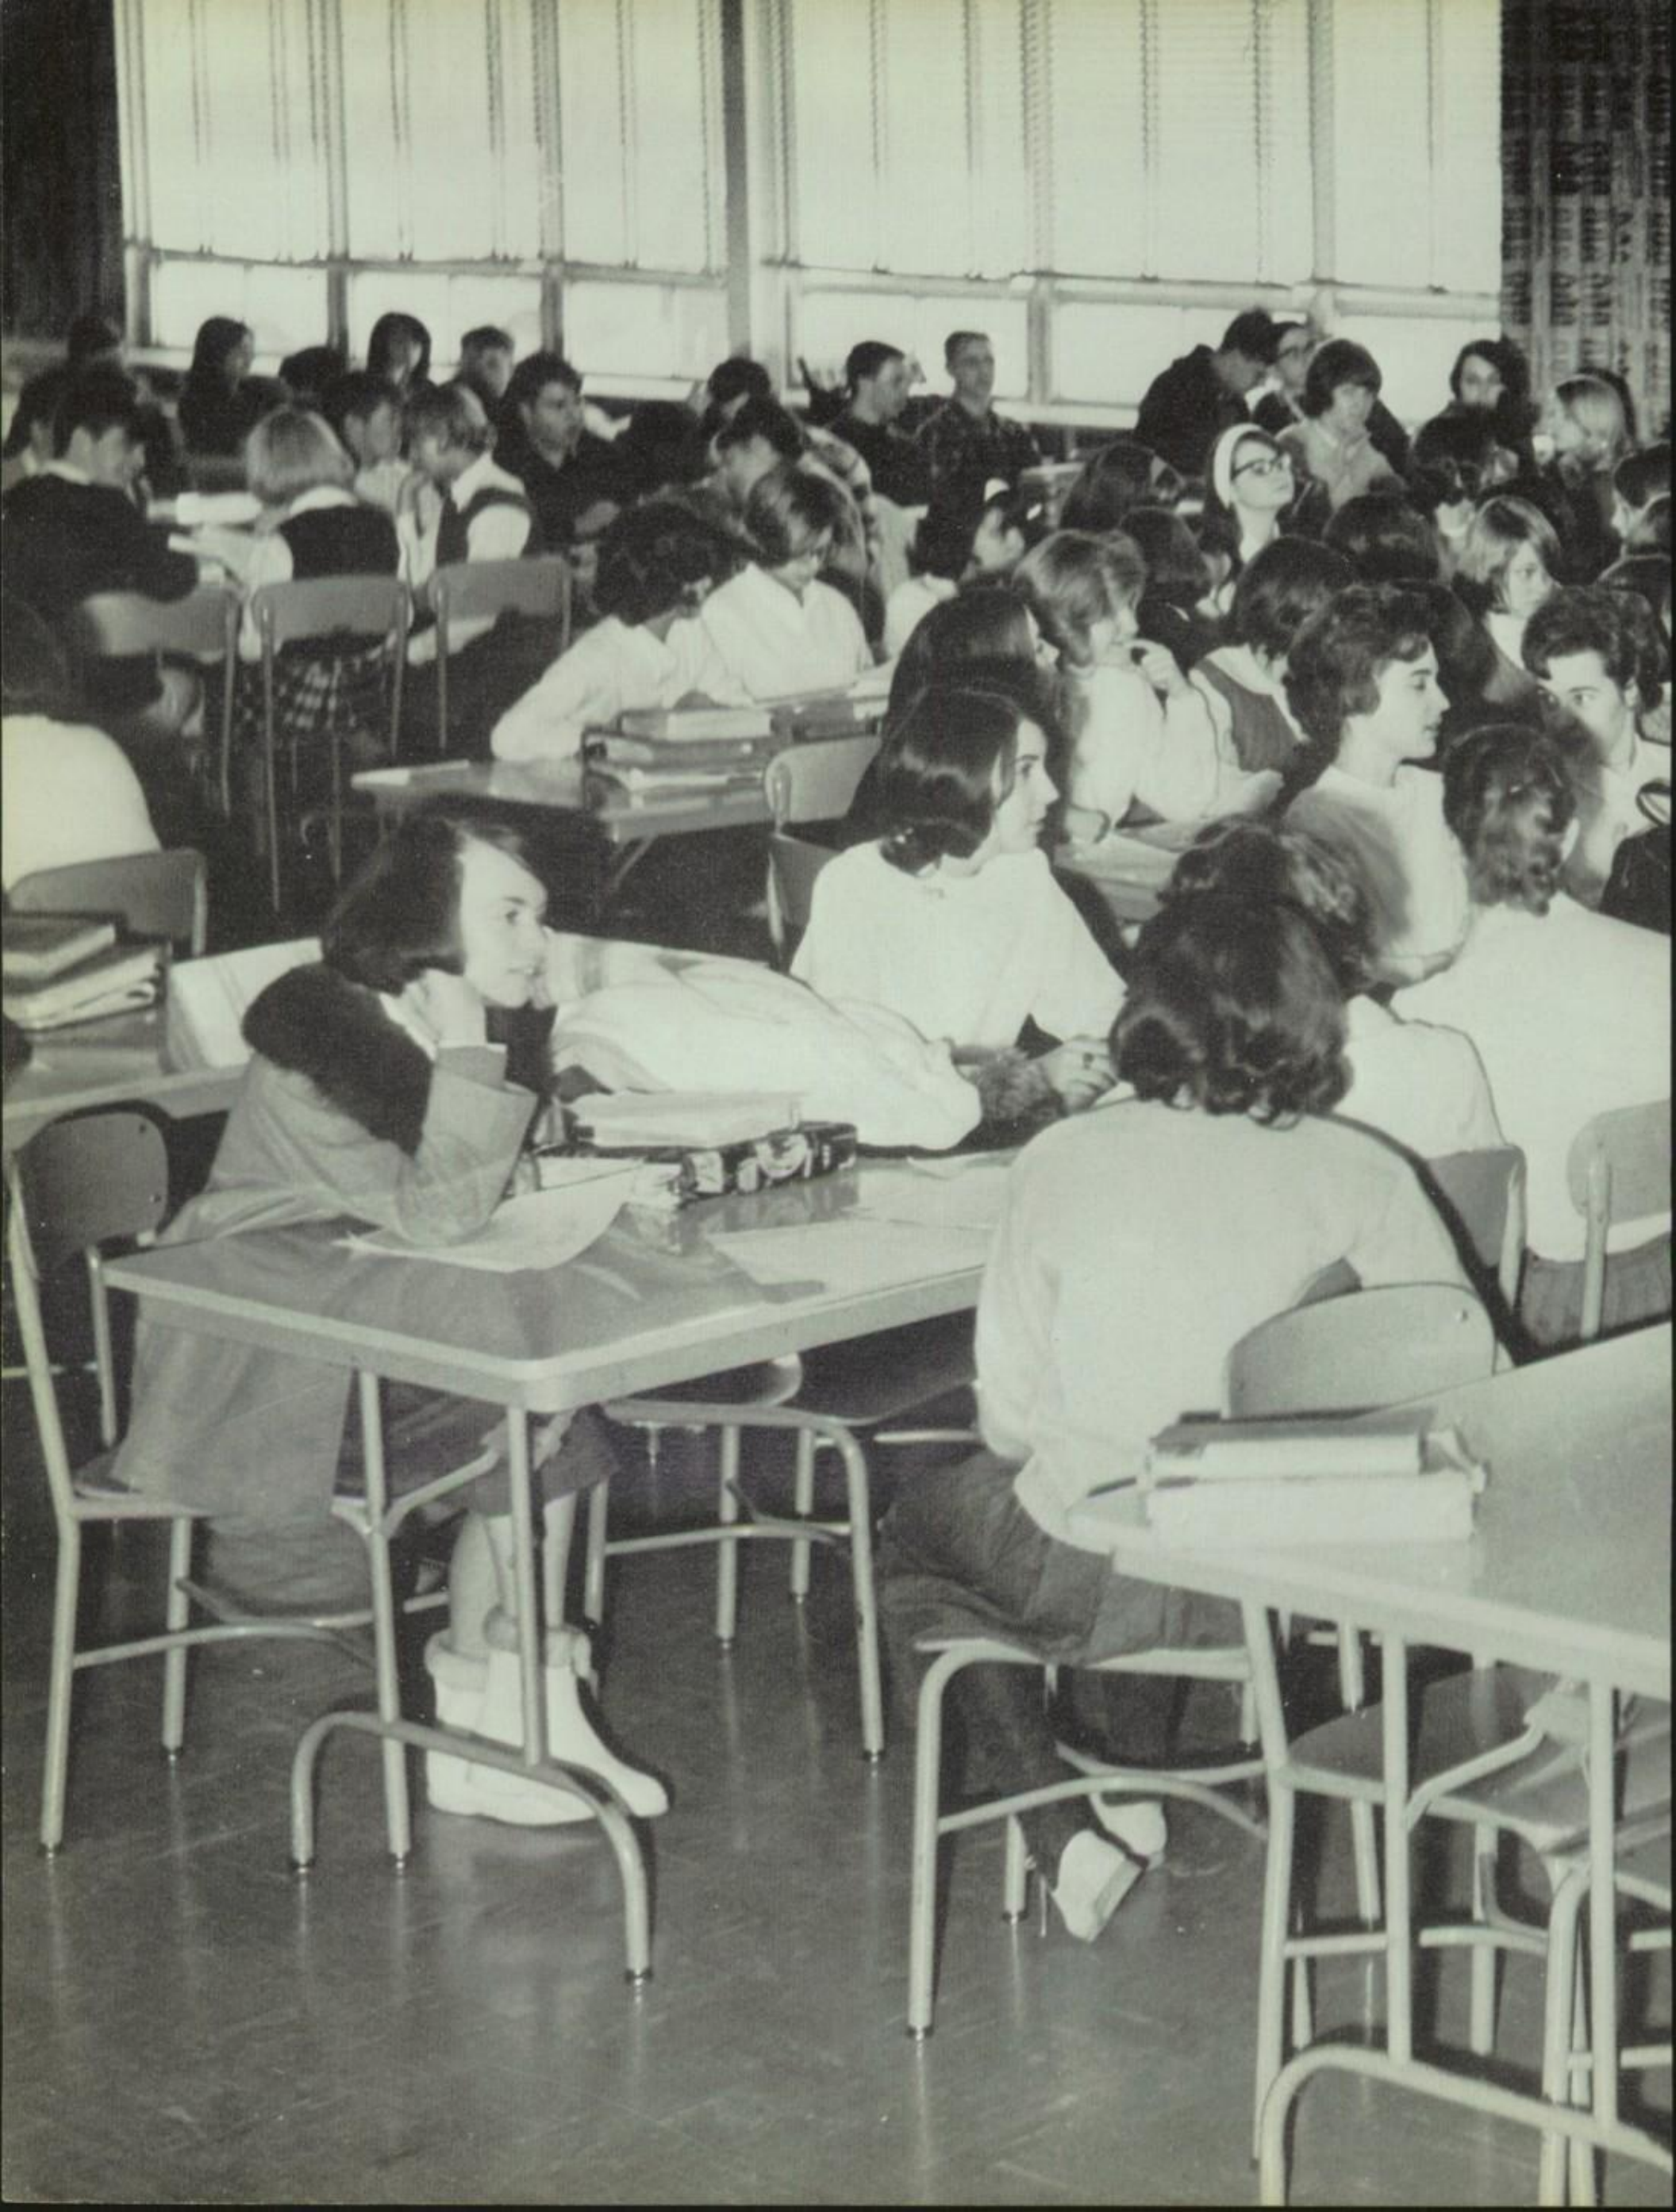

The day of the game arrived and a motorcade, honoring alumni and Platt students and consisting of sixty-eight decorated cars, started its parade at Platt and continued through town in a body until it reached Ceppa Field. The game was heavily attended by alumni, and they helped cheer on their Alma Mater's team during the entire game.

On Saturday, Platt's first Homecoming Dance was held, with representatives from all six of Platt's graduated classes. The queen and her attendants reigned the entire evening, and everyone danced to music provided by Frank Cirillo and his band.

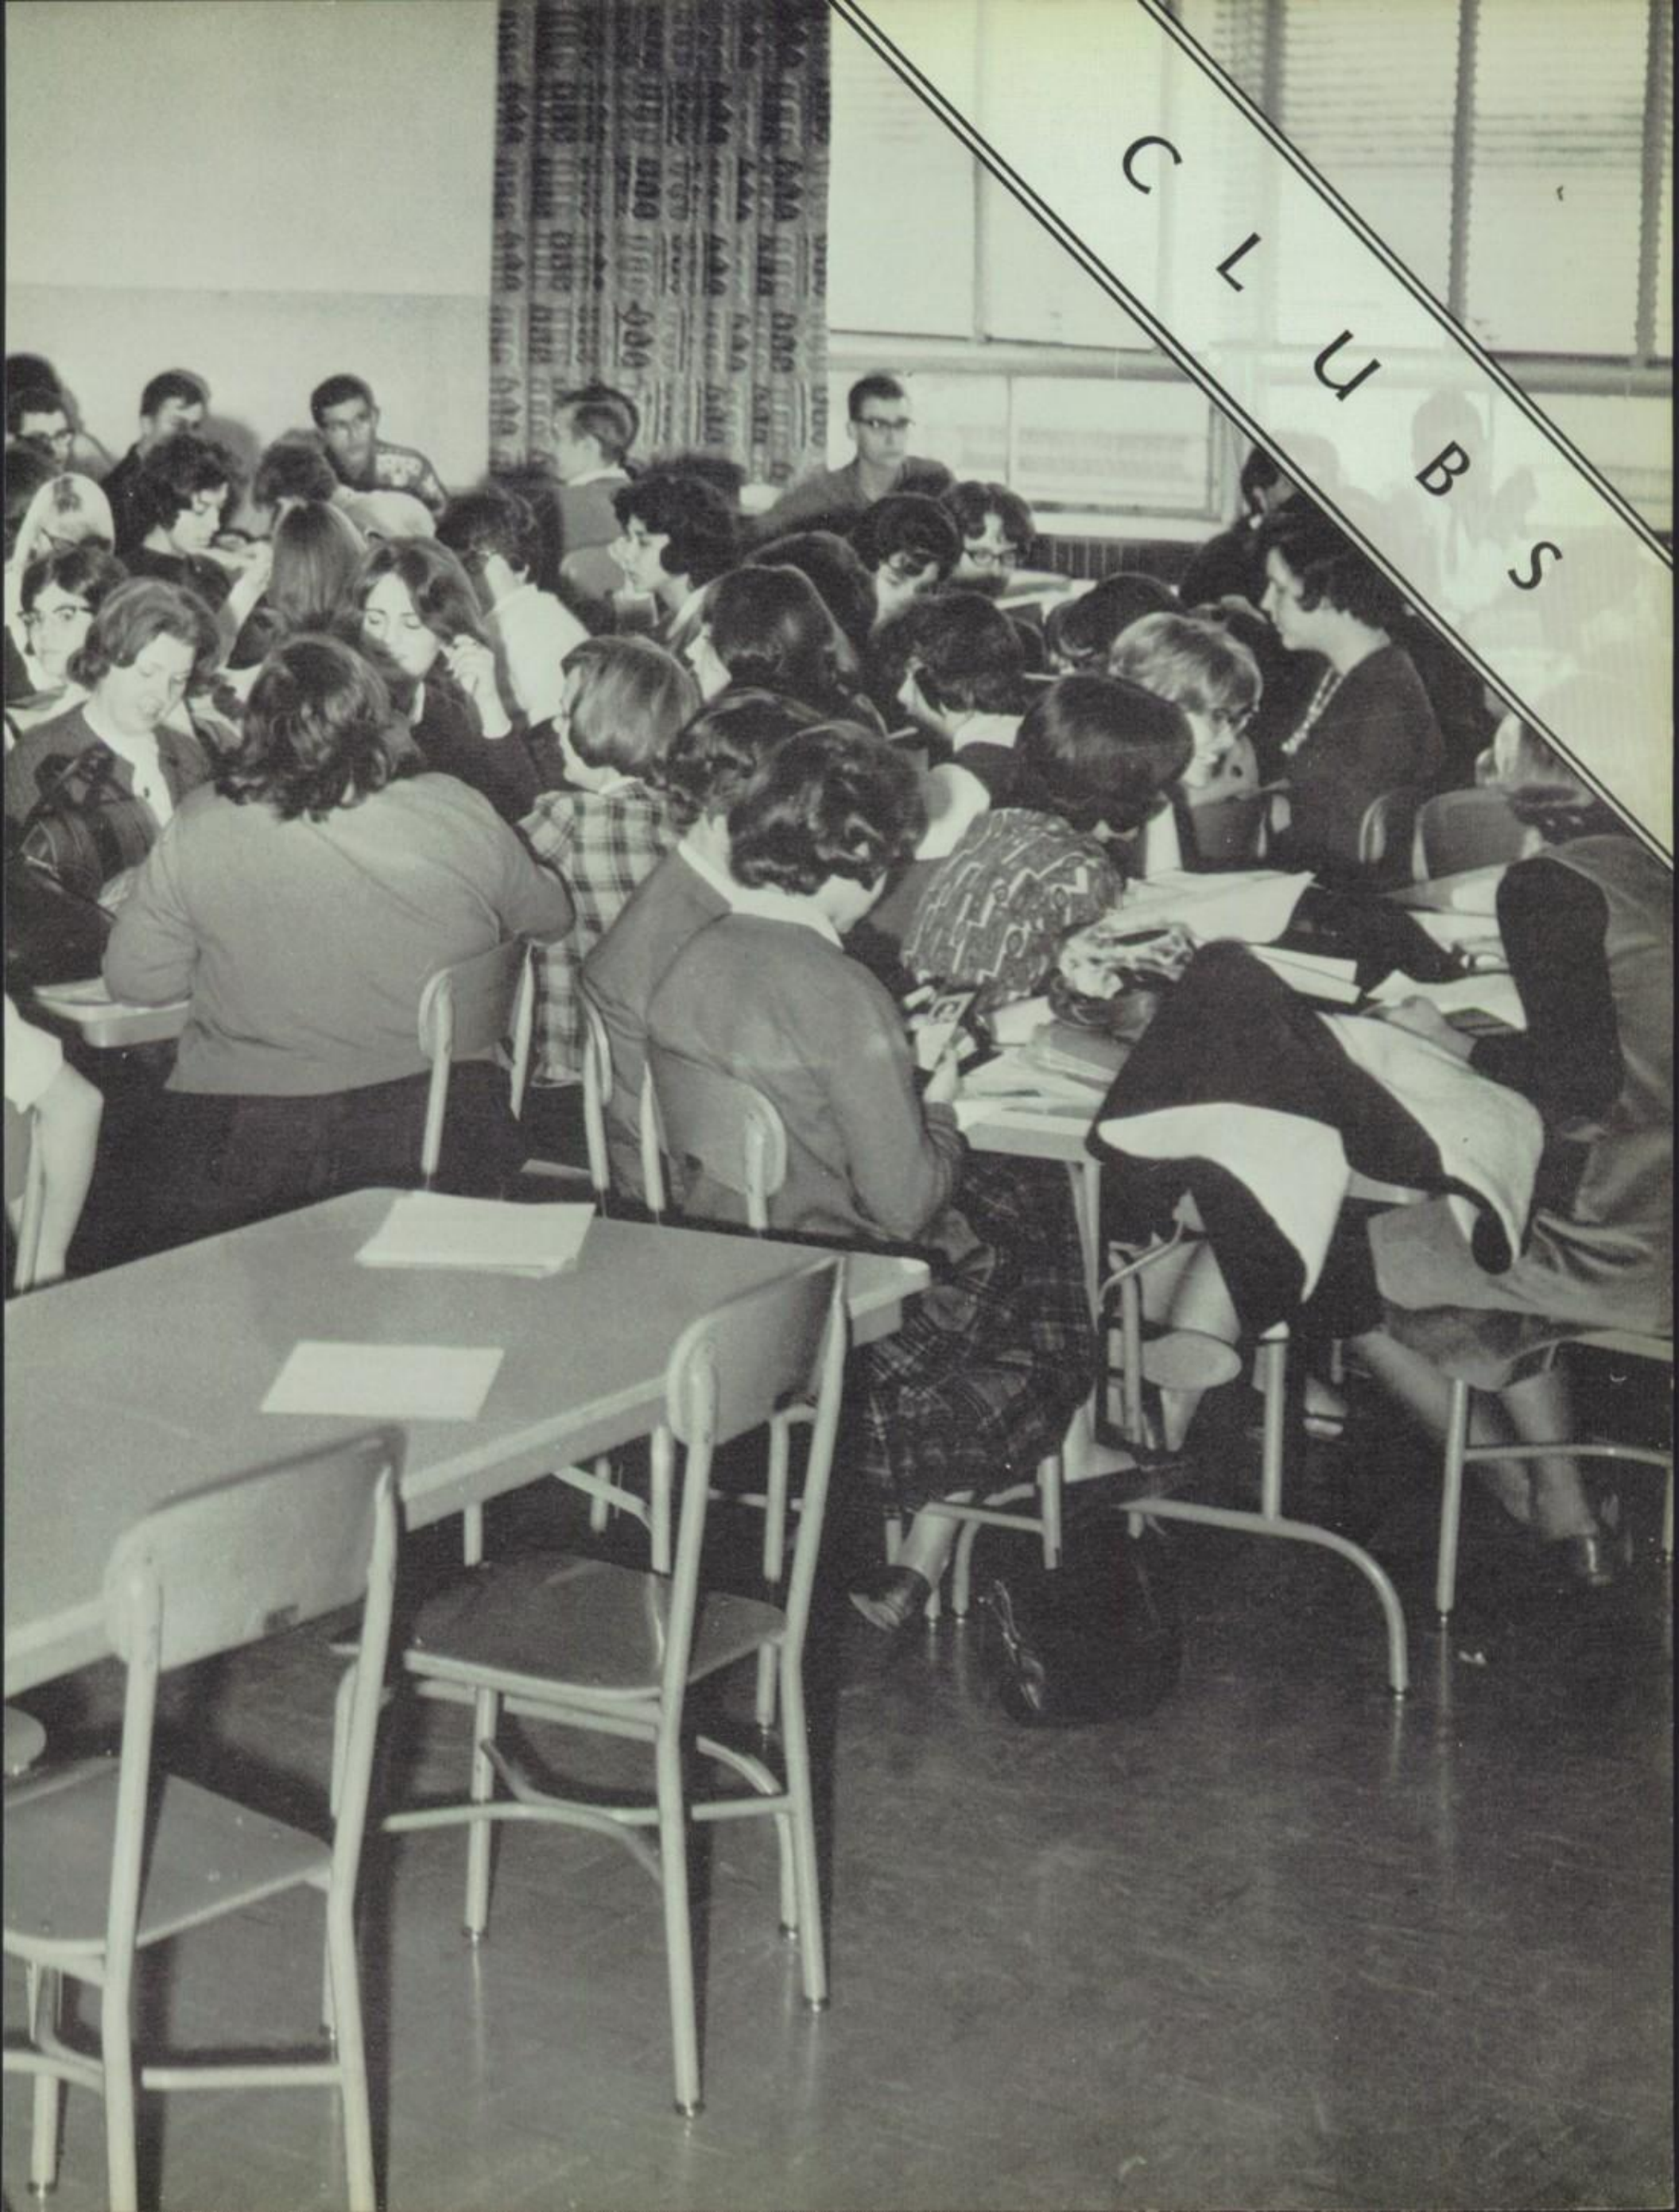

All the hard work of both the Student Council and Senior Class helped to insure a wonderful Homecoming week which all will remember.

Government by the students . . .

Student Council

The Student Council, which was reorganized under a new constitution, is composed of one representative and one alternate from each homeroom. It is the liaison between the administration and the student body. Any grievances or suggestions are brought by individual students to the attention of the Council and their importance is discussed at monthly meetings.

This year's Council has been extremely active in sending representatives to the state convention, sponsoring a foreign orphan, dances, and assemblies, and improving other phases of school life. The interest and cooperation between the students and the administration have been responsible for these many achievements. The advisors are Mr. Thomas Dunne and Mr. Henry Kolakowski.

Trips to near-by hospitals and public health centers acquaint the girls with many vocational opportunities open to them. The sponsors are Miss Helen Frederick and Mrs. Grace St. Arnauld.

S P O R T S

Football

The Platt Panthers ended their season with a record of 3 wins and 6 losses. This may seem quite discouraging, but the team was always in high spirits and tried its hardest at all times throughout the season.

On September 12, Platt and Maloney opened their season by playing the second annual joint jamboree at Ceppa Field. Platt's showing was a very promising one, but the combined Meriden teams lost to Hillhouse and East Haven 30-24.

The team started its official season by losing to Lyman Hall 26-6. In the CCIL league, Platt began by beating Bristol Central in a very impressive 8-0 victory. Although the score seems close, the game itself was an easy win for Platt because of the outstanding maneuvering in the backfield and the accurate passing of Wayne Wright and Pat Waldron.

Next Platt traveled to Manchester and scored a triumph of 16-6. Again Wright's passing and Don DeVito's outstanding running were a credit to the team. Platt's next home game was another victory, this time over Bristol Eastern. The score was 32-12, and Platt again displayed great plays and fine spirit. Platt then went on to suffer its first CCIL defeat at Conard by a score of 21-8. In its next home encounter, Platt sustained a close defeat to Hall, 20-18. The team then lost to Windham 21-6, and Wethersfield 36-0.

In its last game Platt lost a very well-played game to its cross town rival, Maloney. Platt was in the lead till the closing seconds when Maloney pulled ahead with a doubtful touchdown.

Throughout the season, the team was commended for its outstanding spirit, enthusiasm and fine sportsmanship.

Soccer

The 1964 Platt High School soccer team did not have one of its successful seasons this year. However, the teams record of 4 wins, 6 losses and 2 ties fails to indicate the caliber and spirit of the team.

In the six defeats, the Panthers lost five by one goal. Those tie-breaking goals were usually scored in the late minutes of each game. The cause of this may be traced to inexperience in several key positions.

The caliber of the team was illustrated by the fact that four boys won places on the All-CCIL team. Co-captain Roger Richard, the high scorer in the league, was selected for the first team and co-captain Stan Kawecki, Charles Millsback and John Olivier were selected for the second team.

The high point of the season was the double victory over Maloney. The scores were 2-0 and 1-0. These victories enabled the Panthers to retain possession of the L. Crawford Churchill Trophy, symbolic of city supremacy in soccer.

Another bright spot for the Platt team was playing the eventual state champion, Hall High, to a 1-1 stalemate on November 6. Hall was pressed to salvage a tie with a goal in the late stages of the game.

Next year our fine coach, Robert Wodatch, is looking forward to a better season with co-captains-elect Jim Fazzalaro and Mike Gawlak.

Cross Country

The Platt High cross-country team completed a very successful season last fall with a record of 7 wins and 4 losses. Headed by Coach Roy Gooding, the team played all CCIL members and Cheshire, North Haven, and Lyman Hall.

This year Platt also competed in the CIAC class schools meet and as a team placed ninth with many outstanding performances from all the team's members. At the CCIL championship Robert White and Michael Rossi finished 7th and 9th respectively. Special recognition should be given to Michael Rossi, co-captain, who made the All-CCIL cross-country team.

The team was led by seniors: Robert White and Michael Rossi, co-captains, Bruce Lint, Eugene Tencza and Dick Gianino. Underclassmen were Fran Slavinski, Robert Mason, Larry Birch, Barry Benedict, Bill Kunze, Art Leary, Robert Wnek, Michael Morganson, and Dick Schwatlow.

Mr. Gooding is sorry to see these fine seniors leaving the team but is looking forward to a very promising season next fall with the returning lettermen and new prospects that turn out for this fall sport.

Basketball

This year the Platt basketball team had one of its most successful seasons. Under the direction of the new coach, Stan Sorota, Platt ended its season with 12 wins and 8 losses. Very early in the season Platt was able to attain the requirements for the CIAC class A tournament. In the tournament game, Platt, 15 in the state, was paired against Hillhouse, which was 4. Platt played exceptionally well and, despite a defeat by the powerful Hillhouse, everyone was fully aware of Platt's great effort and hard play.

Throughout the season Platt made a great showing in the CCIL league by being in first place once and ending third in the league. During the season our team showed an exceptionally good brand of ball in both defense and offense. Leading our defense was senior Bill St. Onge who pulled down 7.2 rebounds per game. One of St. Onge's most impressive games was at Manchester where Bill pulled down 13 defensive rebounds, the best of the season. Platt's high scorer for the year was senior Hank Macala whose average was an outstanding 17.8. Hank was also voted most valuable to the team by his teammates. Following closely in the scoring average was co-captain Bill St. Onge with an 14.0 average. Chris Siavrakas, Platt's other co-captain, also ended with a fine average of 10.2. Chris was always commended on his great work in both defense and offense.

The team had its best scoring game at Hall where Platt beat Hall 83-65. Platt shot 53.5% from the floor which was the best of the entire season. Throughout the season accurate shooting led to many of Platt's victories. Scoring on a high percentage of foul shots was another factor in Platt's winning season.

Coach Sorota is looking forward to a very fine season next year although he is losing 6 of his 8 lettermen. Captain-elect Art Leary and teammate Fran Slavinski are expected to carry on the job with the help of some very promising jayvees whose outstanding team record was 10-8.

Wrestling

Under the leadership of Coach Charles Maxted, Platt's wrestling team had a successful season. The team ended with 7 wins and 2 losses and had the first undefeated wrestler in Platt's sports history, John Thompson. Also senior Rick Mull finished second in the state tournament.

The wrestlers opened their 1965 season by defeating Glastonbury, a non-league team, 24-21. Manchester, a CCIL member, was their next opponent, and again Platt succeeded in becoming the victor by a score of 26-16. Platt then suffered its first defeat at Hall 34-8. The team, however, made a great comeback by beating Bristol Eastern 29-16 and Bristol Central 27-11. Once again Platt met defeat when it played Conard and lost 30-13. The next two matches were easy victories for Coach Maxted's "Matmen"; they defeated Wethersfield 47-0 and Waterford 36-5. Platt then completed its highly successful season by out-wrestling its cross-town rival Maloney 26-15.

Platt's lettermen from this season were John Thompson, Norman Nadeau, Rick Mull, Henry Iasiello, Fran Peters, Bruce Lint, John Gorman and Poncho Orozco. Despite the fact that Platt will lose 6 of 8 lettermen, the team is looking forward to a very successful season next year and is hoping to improve its record and standing in the CCIL.

Swimming

The Platt High swimming team, though powerful and willing, ended its season with a 3-8 record. Platt fought to the very end in every meet and many of its losses came through the loss of the final relay by a fraction of a second in timing.

Two new school records were made this season by outstanding senior members. Joe Peruti, from whom many of Platt's total points came, set the 160 individual medley record at 1:54.1 minutes. Joe Marinar, who was defeated only once throughout the season, paced the backstroke at 1:12.7 minutes.

One of Platt's hardest fought contests was the Maloney meet in which Platt, despite the loss of injured backstroker Joe Marinar, did everything possible to score a victory. However, the closing event, the decisive factor in the score, was won by Maloney and Platt was defeated.

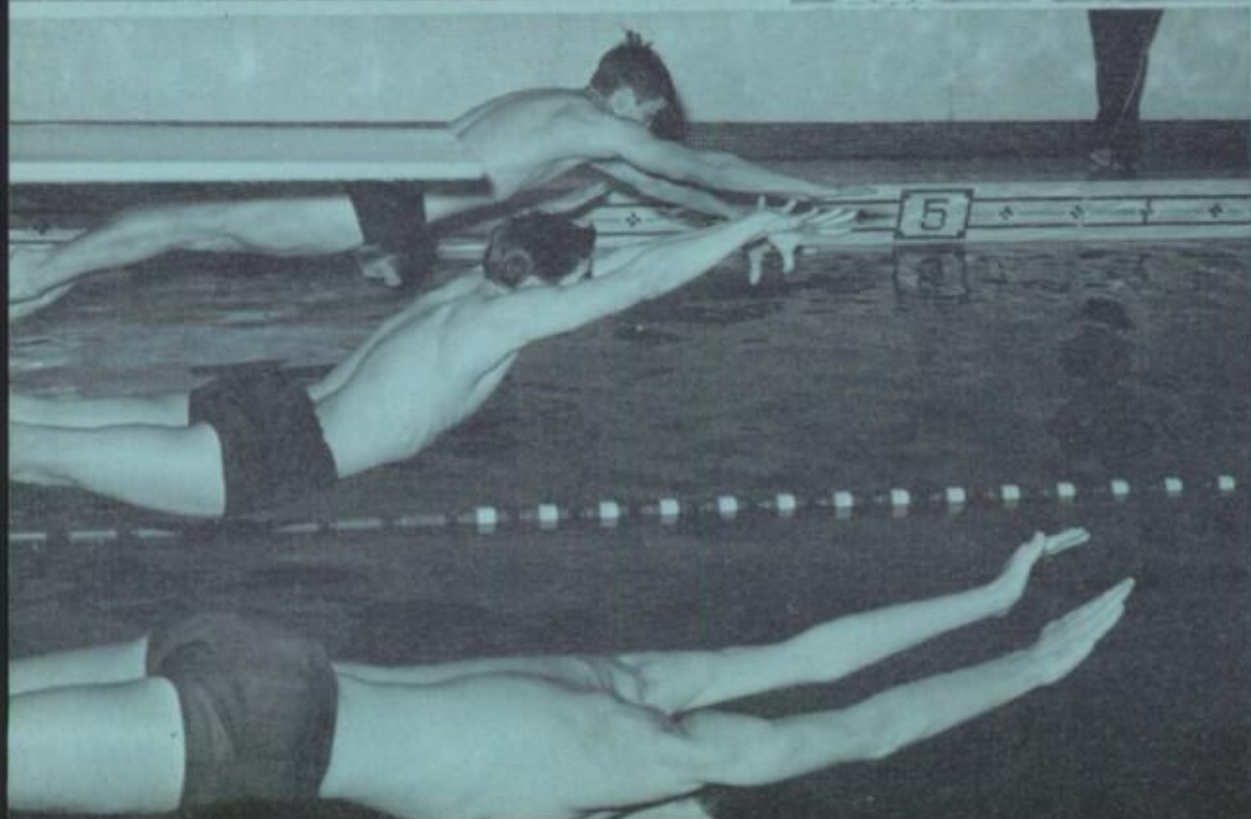

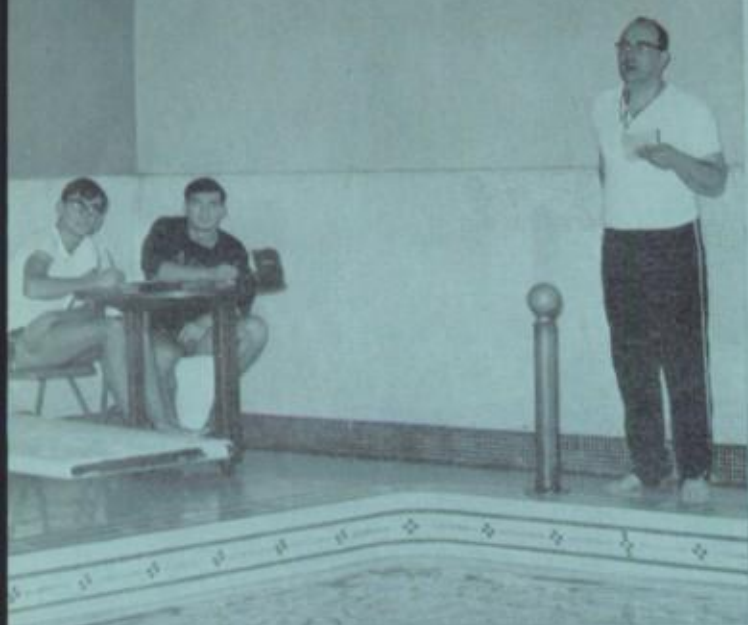

Coach Poirier is looking forward to a successful season with his returning lettermen for next year and hopes they too will have the fine team effort and willingness that the 1965 team displayed throughout the season.

Baseball

The prospects for a successful 1965 baseball season appear to be very good after last year's successful campaign of 10 victories against 4 defeats, and second place in the CCIL. Platt High School made its debut in the CIAC Baseball Tournament and lost by a very close score, 3-1, to Bridgeport Notre Dame, the team that eventually won the tournament.

Even though Coach Zajac lost such stalwarts as Captain Howard Smith and Daniel Grabowski and Peter Kofsuske, he will greet 10 returning lettermen on the opening practice date, March 15.

Captain Donald DeVito will lead the veteran squad, which will include leading batter John Kileen, Wayne Wright, John Dominello, Terry Bongiovanni, James Frederick, Allen Kiertz, Wayne LeFort, and Charls Iwanicki.

These veterans will be pressed for position by a strong nucleus of last year's jayvee squad headed by Leo Carabetta, Peter Allison, James Brennan, Thomas Gaj, James Fazzalaro, William Simmons, Rodney Zimmer and Mark Sklepowicz.

TRACK TEAM

Track

Coach John Klarman's track team finished last season with a record of 9 wins and 5 losses. This year the team hopes to do even better.

New school records were made last season in several events. Michael Rossi set the record for the mile, 4:37.7 minutes. A new high for the pole vault was established when Bruce Lint reached a height of 11'6". Both boys are lettermen and will be seniors this year for the '65 season. Also returning this season is Robert White who helped set the four man relay team record for the 880 yard event with a time of 1:34.3 minutes.

Other important returning lettermen are: Joseph Luca, Marc Marcantonio, Leslie Chase, Rick Mull, and many very important jayvees who will spark the team on to a winning season.

Golf

The golf team opens its season in the last week of April and finishes the first week of June. They will play two matches with each of the eight CCIL teams and Wilcox Tech.

The team members practice every day after school at the Municipal Golf Course. Because golf is essentially an individual sport rather than a team sport, each member practices his own skills, thus helping to improve the team as a whole.

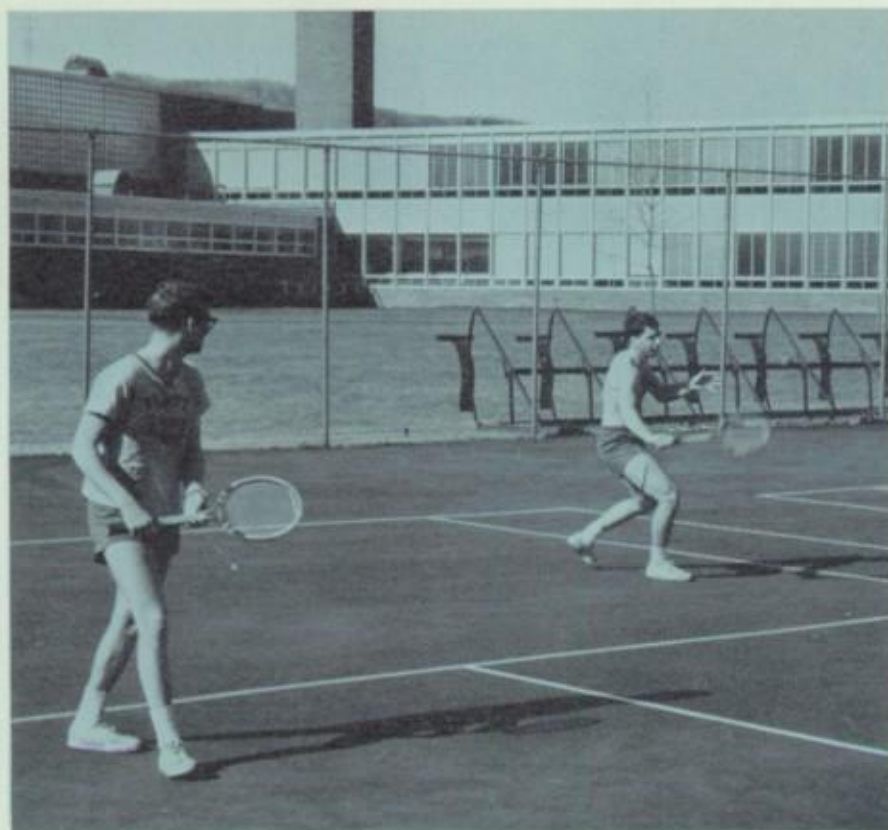

Coach Zaleski's promising returning lettermen are captain Roger Richard, who represented Platt at the state tournament at Farmington Country Club last year, John Doherty and Thomas Gallucci. Prospective underclassmen are James Lovendale, Richard Larese, Richard Zuber, and Thomas Silocka.

Last year the team completed its season with 7 wins and 11 losses. With the promising lettermen returning and last year's jayvees, the team and Coach Henry Zaleski are looking forward to a very successful season.

GOLF TEAM

Tennis

Although Coach Paul Crone's tennis team has only two returning lettermen, the team is expected to do as well or better than last year's team which compiled a 8-3 record. This year the team will depend heavily on the performances of Bob Danielson and Paul Krochmal.

Last year the team sent four members to the state tournament and hopes to improve its performance in the tournament this spring.

The team this year should have the necessary depth which it lacked in previous years. Backing up those boys already mentioned will be Michael Beloff, James Frederick, Thomas Patterson and Davis Tracy.

The boys will be shooting for their sixth winning season and also the retention of the city championship. Practice started unusually early this season because the boys wanted to reach top shape before the opening of the season.

TENNIS TEAM

Girl's Intramural Sports

Intramural competition between girls teams on a class basis was carried on in field hockey, soccer, basketball, volleyball and softball. This year Miss Frederick and Miss Robertson organized and instructed the teams in good sportsmanship and fair play.

The senior squad that won the field hockey intramurals was captained by Cheryl Prigatano and included Janet Brennan, Sheila Davino, Pat Surowiecki, Charlotte Grodzicki, Susan Moskell, Donna Yankowski, Maxine Gormley, Linda Kielbasinski, Debbie Chabot, Marsha Gormley and Lynn Despins. The senior soccer intramural championship team consisted of captain Lisa Galante, Linda Quirk, Elaine Orzel, Maureen Mainville, Judy Bohack, Donna Bovini and Kathy Dornfried. In the winter sports the seniors also had champs. The best senior basketball team was: Marilyn Hines (captain), Cheryl Bacote, Marcia Zezeck, Linda Meigs, Barbara Brown, Connie Veronneau, Gayle Hayek and Paula Kaiser.

The juniors and sophomores had no field hockey champion team but the best basketball team of the combined classes consisted of captain Denise Charboneau, Brenda Rametta, Joanne Slomkowski, Beth Emery, Susan Dykas, Yvonne Cooper, Gail Harris, Pam Townsend and Cindy Partridge.

A good turnout is expected for volleyball and softball. A new twist has been added with the forming of co-ed volleyball teams which will start in spring.

MEN'S FACULTY

Boys' Intramural Sports & Men's Faculty

An extensive intramural athletic program is conducted for the boys of the school. Intra-class competition is sponsored in basketball, volleyball and softball. Since over fifty percent of all junior and seniors boys participate in basketball intramurals, it seems to be the most popular sport.

The seniors boys basketball champion team was captained by Paul Nakos and his teammates were: Jack Zeleck, Marc Marcantonio, Ron Spencer, Ron Seppa, Fran Peters, Ken Ryan, Jim Frederick and Tom O'Brien. Michigan was the junior champion team and it included: co-captains John Dominello and Jim Brennan, Frank Bennett, Jerry Roberts, Dick Lohrmann, Tom O'Malley and John Butler.

Every year the seniors boys champion basketball team has a chance to prove its title by playing the men's faculty team. This year the faculty managed to defeat the senior team, The Citadels, in a game played after school. Also the varsity basketball team staged a game played after school as a benefit game for the A.A. jackets which are awarded to outstanding athletes. This year the game, played as a Key Club tag game, was held after school and the varsity squad rolled over the faculty.

The Varsity Cheerleaders

Sparkle, smiles, pep and enthusiasm were the qualities of this year's varsity squad. The cheerleaders' capabilities and exuberance were demonstrated by their loyal support of Platt's athletic teams at pep rallies and even in routine practices. Led by senior captain Patricia Surowiecki, they successfully promoted school spirit as they cheered our teams on to victory.
